

1 Stacy has just done shopping for the home. She plans to cook something for her boyfriend.

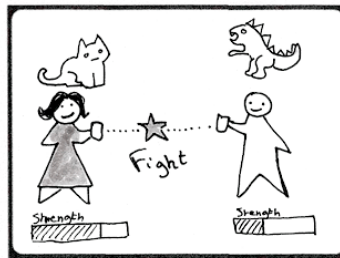

2 When she arrives home, she immediately thinks about recording her expenses because there is a game...

3 She records her expense in the "expense game" application.

4 In this game, there is an animal which strength increases each time she record an expense.

5 At the end of the month, she synchronizes with her boyfriend and their animals fight together!

6 The winner is the one who pay more expense for the household. The loser reimburse the difference.